Meet Our Speakers

Anna Berblinger, RVT

Anna graduated from the WSU Tech Veterinary Nursing program with Cohort 8. She has been at the Veterinary Health Center at the Kansas State University College of Veterinary Medicine since January of 2024. Anna started with being the first to complete the Large Animal Nurse Internship and was hired as a Large Animal Veterinary Nurse II in October 2024.

Josie Englert, RVT, VTS (ECC)

Josie is an RVT from Wichita who graduated from Colby Community College Veterinary Nursing in 2013. She is an Emergency Department Lead Technician and Training Supervisor at the Veterinary Emergency and Specialty Hospital of Wichita with Ethos. She is a RECOVER BLS/ALS Rescuer/ Instructor that has a passion for teaching CPR. She obtained her VTS in Emergency and Critical Care in 2022. She is a mother of two and owns two dogs, Breezy and Baela.

Amanda Hackerott, RVT

Amanda is the Director of Veterinary Nursing at WSU Tech. She enjoys teaching parasitology and anatomy. She has just completed her graduate degree in Career and Technical Education and loves training the future of veterinary nursing.

Amelia Hartman, RVT

Amelia has been in vet med for 10 years. Beginning at the Kansas Humane Society, to emergency, to general practice and now back at VESHW as a surgery and anesthesia nurse, Amelia feels fortunate to have such a variety of experiences. Graduating from WSU Tech in 2022, she has been an RVT since May 2023. Since planting her feet in emergency medicine, the art of patient care and advocacy has been a personal focus for her, as well as a priority for educating fellow veterinary professionals. She lives in Wichita with her husband Rob and 2 cats, Ruby and Zeppelin. She attributes her passion for vet med to her two dearly departed pets, Scooter and Frederick who truly lit her fire. Her husband and her close family are her greatest support system and she doesn't know where she'd be without them!

Meet Our Speakers

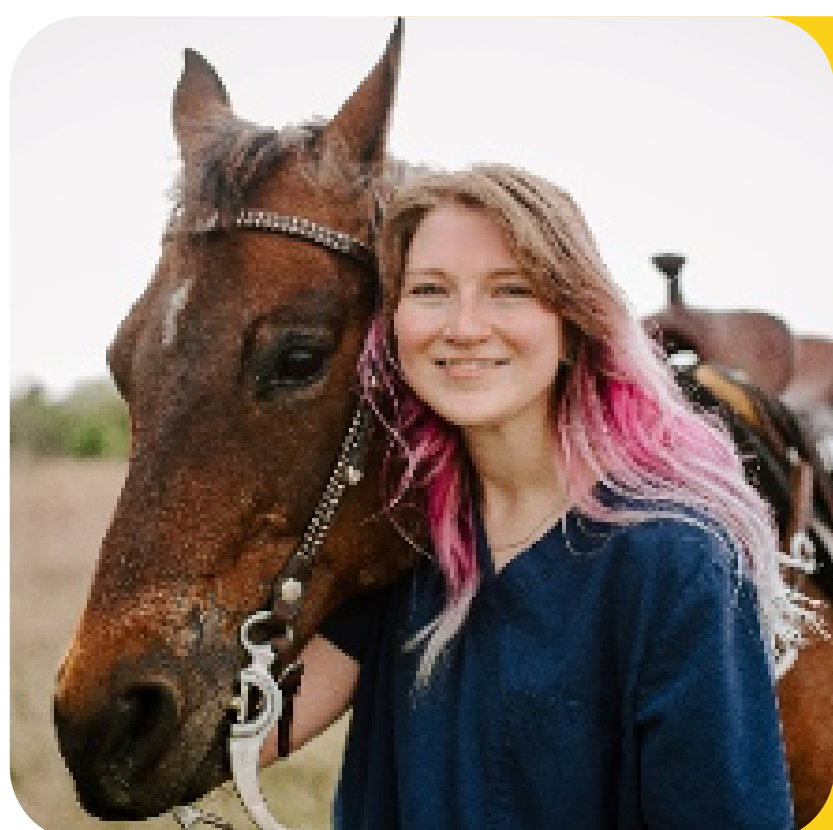

Brooke Neiberger, RVT

Brooke has been part of KSU VHC Oncology since 2019. She earned her AAS in VT from Colby Community College in 2017 before moving to Manhattan for an internship at KSU VHC. During her internship, she worked across multiple hospital departments, gaining a diverse set of skills and experiences. At KSU, she also completed her BS in Applied Business/ Technology. Following her internship, Brooke worked in ICU & Radiology before stepping into her current role as the Oncology Nurse in late 2019. Brooke shares her home with two dogs: Millie and Onyx. She also enjoys hiking the scenic trails of Manhattan with her fiancé, Dayton.

Kaitlyn Pinney, RVT

Kaitlyn has 8 years of experience across general practice, shelter medicine, and emergency/urgent care. She's passionate about teaching, mentoring, & helping other technicians build confidence, especially when it comes to tricky medical cases & hands-on learning. She has a soft spot for bottle babies/ medical fosters and always seems to have a few fosters in tow. When she's not at work, you'll probably find her knee-deep in a DIY project or working on something creative at home or for her two kids. Kaitlyn loves sharing what she's learned and believes that with the right support and mindset, every tech can thrive—even in the most high-stress situations.

Veronica Rodriguez, RVT

Veronica is an RVT with Flyin 3 Vet Service, bringing 4 years of experience in veterinary medicine. She has worked in emergency care, specialty surgery, and both large animal and equine practices. Outside of her professional role, Veronica contributes to her family's cattle ranch as a hands-on ranch hand. She is passionate about giving back and uses her education and field experience to support and volunteer within the global veterinary community.
